"Who among us doesn't sigh at the thought of yet one more commitment tacked on our already hectic lives?"

That was my initial response last year when I felt God's tug to volunteer at Awana. Ultimately, I resigned myself to the truth that if that's where God was directing me, than that was the BEST place for me to be!

It wasn't long before I realized that Awana was much more than just singing songs for Jesus and memorizing Bible verses. Not that those aren't important avenues for impacting our children in Christ, but so much more is offered here through the hearts and gifts of all involved. Awana Leaders don't just volunteer a couple hours of their time each Sunday afternoon. The spirit of this place reveals a genuine desire and effort to participate in God's work of bringing relationship and love to the children welcomed here and to all who serve together in this ministry.

More than just lessons and games, it is an experience where we all have the privilege to walk together in faith, celebrating our God and helping each other to grow and know Him more intimately.

How desperately, not only our children need that, but ourselves as well! How fortunate FDC is to have such a ministry - may we all continue to pray for its impact and growth." -Dee Anema, Awana T&T volunteer

If you're a morning person, and need a way to release a few pent up emotions.... Then porch demolition day is for you!

Bring your sledgehammer (no TNT please)! – Saturday, October 27, 8am

We need people to help us break up our porch on the Family Fellowship Center for replacement.

See Basil or Bob for information.

In October, we will celebrate BAPTISM.

Those who follow Jesus are directed by him to "Believe and be baptized!" Baptism is a re-enactment of our death to the old way of life and our new birth into Christian discipleship.

Have you been baptized since you believed?

See Pastor Jerry with your questions or to express an interest. An orientation will be scheduled in weeks to come.

October 28, The Hoving Home Choir

will come share their testimonies and a song during worship. The Hoving Home is a residential, spiritually-based home. It is a non-profit organization serving women ages 18 and over who have been involved in drug addiction, alcoholism, prostitution and other life-controlling problems. The 6 or 12 month program is geared to rebuilding broken lives in an atmosphere of warmth, trust, support and love.
